

DOCUMENTS NEEDED FOR ADMISSION IN CANADA

When applying for an admission letter (acceptance from a Canadian college or university), the required documents are usually simpler than the full study permit application.

To be available before application start:

 What You Need to Provide:

- ✓ Your High School Diploma or Bachelor's Degree
- ✓ Your High School Report or Bachelor Transcripts
- ✓ A Valid Passport
- ✓ An Updated CV
- ✓ Photo Passport
- ✓ Birth Certificate

Details for Common Documents Needed for Admission in Canada

1. Passport

- Clear copy of passport bio page with all stay period + at least 6months

2. Academic Documents

Depending on your level:

When Applying for Undergraduate (Bachelor's)

- High school Diploma
- Transcripts/report cards

When Applying for Master's

- Bachelor's Degree
- University Transcripts

When Applying for PhD

- Master's Degree
- Research Documents

3. Language Test Results

If required:

- IELTS
- TOEFL
- Duolingo
- TEF/TCF (French)

Some schools waive this and accept Medium of Instruction (MOI) for

4. CV / Resume

Mostly for:

- graduate programs
- MBA
- postgraduate diplomas

5. Motivation Letter / Statement of Purpose

Explain:

- Why this program
- Why Canada
- Career goals

6. Recommendation Letters

Usually 1–3 letters from:

- Teachers
- Professors
- Employers

7. Application Fee

Usually:

- CAD 50–500

8. Portfolio (for some programs)

Needed for:

- Art
- Design
- Architecture

9. Work Experience Documents (if applicable)

For MBA or professional programs:

- Employment letters
- Pay slips
- Experience certificates

10. Québec Applicants

If applying in Québec:

- Admission first
- Then CAQ later

After You Receive Admission Letter

Next steps:

1. Pay tuition deposit
2. Apply for CAQ (Québec only)
3. Apply for PAL (Other private universities outside Quebec)
4. Apply for study permit
5. Biometrics + medical