- Support editing, formatting, and aligning proposals with university and supervisor requirements.

3.3 Email Monitoring and Communication

- Monitor candidate-related emails and communications where authorized.
- Respond to emails professionally on behalf of the Student / Applicant when authorized.
- Follow up with professors, universities, and admissions offices.

3.4 Application Support

- Assist in preparing and submitting MSc & PhD applications.
- Upload and organize required documents.
- Ensure applications are submitted within deadlines.

3.5 Follow-Up Services

- Continue communication and follow-up until a MSc & PhD supervisor is secured.
- Continue support until the visa process is completed successfully.

3.6 Reporting

- Provide regular updates regarding progress, communications, and application status.

4. Responsibilities of the Consultant

- Provide necessary guidance regarding application requirements.
- Guide and supervise the application support process where necessary.
- Ensure support services are delivered professionally.
- Ensure compliance with legal and ethical standards in all applications.

5. Responsibilities of the PhD-Level Student / Applicant

- Provide accurate personal, academic, and professional information.
- Provide all required documents on time.
- Cooperate with the Consultant during supervisor search, application preparation, and visa processing.
- Review and approve application materials where required.
- Maintain honest communication throughout the process.

6. Compensation

- A non-refundable upfront service fee of 30,000 RWF shall be paid before starting the application process for each person.
- An additional success fee of 200 USD shall be paid once a PhD supervisor and visa are successfully obtained.
- These services apply to MSc & PhD opportunities in Canada, USA, Asia, and Europe.
- All payments shall be made according to the agreed payment method between the Parties.

7. Confidentiality

The Parties agree to maintain strict confidentiality regarding:

- Applicant information,
- University communications,
- Login credentials,
- Personal and academic documents,
- Any internal business information of the Consultant.

Confidential information shall not be disclosed to third parties without written authorization, except where required by law or necessary for application and visa processing.

8. Term of Contract

This Contract shall commence on 2026-05-23 and shall remain in effect until:

- A MSc & PhD supervisor is secured and visa processing is completed; or
- The Contract is terminated by either Party in writing.

9. Termination

Either Party may terminate this Contract by providing written notice of 30 days.

The Consultant reserves the right to terminate the Contract immediately in cases of:

- Misconduct,
- Breach of confidentiality,
- Negligence,
- Fraudulent activities,
- Failure to provide required information or documents,
- Failure to respect agreed payment terms.

10. Independent Service Relationship

This Contract does not create an employment relationship between the Student / Applicant and PARROT CANADA VISA CONSULTANT CO. LTD. The Consultant provides application support services, and the Student / Applicant remains responsible for the accuracy of all personal and academic information submitted.

11. Governing Law

This Contract shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Laws of Rwanda.

12. Entire Agreement

This Contract constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties and supersedes all prior discussions or agreements relating to the subject matter herein.

13. Signatures
