11. EMPLOYEE PROHIBITIONS AND RESTRICTIONS

The Employee shall strictly comply with all prohibitions and restrictions contained in the Company's policies, including student contracts, student payments, MIS compliance, unauthorized partner communications, confidentiality, conflict of interest, solicitation of students or clients, and mandatory daily Check-In and Check-Out procedures in PARROT MIS.

11.1 Student Contracts

The Employee shall not create, process, submit, or initiate any student application unless the student has first signed the official service contract through the Company's approved procedures and systems.

11.2 Student Payments

The Employee shall not receive, collect, hold, borrow, or accept cash or payments directly from students or clients.

All payments must be made exclusively through the Company's officially approved payment methods and bank accounts.

11.3 Unauthorized Absence

The Employee shall not be absent from work without prior approval from management except in genuine emergencies.

11.4 MIS Compliance

The Employee shall not create, submit, or process any student application through ApplyBoard, QS Apply, university portals, or any other recruitment platform before the student has been properly registered and documented in PARROT MIS.

11.5 Personal Use of Company Assets

The Employee shall not use Company property, systems, databases, software, documents, equipment, intellectual property, or resources for personal profit or private business activities.

11.6 Unauthorized Partner Communication

The Employee shall not negotiate, discuss partnership matters, represent the Company, make commitments, or communicate with universities, colleges, agents, recruiters, institutional partners, or business partners without prior authorization from management.

11.7 Misuse of Company Property

The Employee shall not misuse, damage, alter, copy, remove, transfer, disclose, sell, or unlawfully use Company property, information, software, records, databases, passwords, systems, or equipment.

11.8 Confidential Information

The Employee shall not disclose confidential information relating to students, clients, partners, finances, operations, strategies, or Company business activities to any unauthorized person.

11.9 Conflict of Interest

The Employee shall not engage in any employment, consultancy, business activity, or relationship that creates a conflict of interest with the Company's operations without written authorization.

11.10 Solicitation of Students or Clients

The Employee shall not directly or indirectly solicit, recruit, divert, transfer, or attempt to transfer Company students, clients, institutional partners, or business opportunities for personal benefit or for another organization.

11.11 Mandatory Daily Check-In and Check-Out in PARROT MIS

The Employee is required to complete a daily Check-In in PARROT MIS immediately upon commencing work and a daily Check-Out in PARROT MIS before leaving work or ending the working day.

Failure to properly complete the required Check-In and Check-Out procedures shall be considered a violation of Company attendance and operational policies.

The Employee acknowledges and agrees that:

- Daily Check-In and Check-Out records in PARROT MIS shall serve as the official attendance record of the Company.
- Every missed Check-In or Check-Out may result in a salary deduction as determined by Company policy.
- The deduction amount applicable to each missed Check-In or Check-Out shall be communicated by management through automatic MIS notification.
- Salary adjustments resulting from missed Check-In and Check-Out records shall be calculated at the end of each payroll period and reflected in the Employee's monthly salary.

Repeated failure to comply with Check-In and Check-Out requirements may result in disciplinary action, including written warnings, probation extension, suspension, or termination of employment.

12. DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Violation of company policies, procedures, or this Agreement may result in:

1. Verbal Warning
2. Written Warning
3. Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)
4. Probation Extension
5. Suspension
6. Termination of Employment
7. Financial Liability for Damages
8. Legal Action where applicable

The Company reserves the right to determine the appropriate disciplinary measure based on the seriousness of the violation.

13. TERMINATION DURING PROBATION

Either party may terminate employment during the probation period in accordance with applicable labor laws and company policies.

The Company may terminate employment immediately if:

- Performance is unsatisfactory.
- Company policies are violated.
- Misconduct occurs.
- Confidentiality is breached.
- Fraud, theft, or dishonesty is discovered.
- The Employee provides false information during recruitment.
- The Employee acts against the interests of the Company.

14. CONFIRMATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Successful completion of the probation period does not automatically guarantee permanent employment.

Confirmation of employment shall be based upon satisfactory performance and approval by management.

15. ACCEPTANCE

By signing below, both parties acknowledge that they have read, understood, and voluntarily agreed to the terms and conditions of this Probation Employment Agreement.
